

Cultural Diversity

Across Down

- 4. An educational approach that promotes understanding, appreciation, and inclusion of diverse cultures and perspectives.
- 7. Preconceived opinions, attitudes, or stereotypes held towards individuals or groups based on factors such as race, gender, or religion.
- 12. The study of how language is used in social contexts and the implications of context on meaning.
- 14. The sense of belonging and identification with a particular ethnic or racial group, based on shared cultural heritage and experiences.
- 16. Oversimplified and generalized beliefs or ideas about a particular group or category of people.
- 18. A social group characterized by shared cultural traditions, ancestry, language, and history.
- 20. The risk of confirming negative stereotypes about one's own social group, which can impair performance and well-being.
- 21. Prejudice or inclination towards or against a particular group or individual, influencing judgment or behavior.
- 22. Unfair treatment or unequal opportunities based on characteristics such as race, gender, or ethnicity.
- 1. Cognitive frameworks or mental structures that individuals develop to organize and understand gender-related information.
- 2. Societal expectations and norms regarding the behaviors, roles, and responsibilities deemed appropriate for males and females.
- 3. An educational approach that incorporates students' cultural backgrounds and experiences to enhance learning and foster inclusivity.
- 5. The interconnected nature of social categorizations such as race, gender, class, and sexuality, resulting in unique and intersecting forms of discrimination or privilege.
- 6. Cultural expressions and practices developed by marginalized groups to resist or challenge dominant norms, values, and systems.
- 8. The study of how language and society interact, including the social and cultural factors that shape language variation and use.
- 9. The patterns or systems that shape how individuals engage and interact within a particular social context, such as a classroom or community.
- 10. A person's deeply felt sense of being male, female, or another gender, which may or may not align with the sex assigned at birth.
- 11. The shared beliefs, values, customs, practices, and behaviors of a particular group or society, influencing their way of life.
- 13. A social construct used to categorize groups of people based on physical characteristics such as skin color, hair texture, and facial features.
- 15. The process of developing and affirming a positive Black identity, involving stages of exploration, immersion, and commitment.
- 16. A measure of an individual's or group's social and economic position within a society, often determined by factors such as income, education, and occupation.
- 17. An individual's enduring pattern of emotional, romantic, and/or sexual attractions to people of the same or different sex.
- 19. Preconceived notions or prejudices based on gender, leading to differential treatment or expectations.